

27 April 1979

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I hope you don't think it too forward of me to be writing to you but Hoss has told me so much about you and your lovely wife that I feel as though I might have known you for years. I have only known Hoss for a few short months but he has come to mean an awful lot to me. When I first met him I felt sorry for him being all alone and all but after getting to know him a little better and getting to realize that he has people like you who really care I know that he is not all alone in this world. It is really heart warming to meet someone like him who cares so much about everyone else and thinks only of helping others. You see, my poor late husband has only been gone for 7 months and I have been all alone trying to take care of the two estates and all when I met Hoss and he so willingly has taken over all of the problems for me. He has even gotten in touch with the kind Attorney who is handling the case for his brother James and is asking him to help expedite the settling of the estate for me. I wanted to sell the house in Florida and the one in New York and keep the one in Georgia but Hoss said not to worry he would take care of everything and do what was best for me. It is so much easier knowing that I have someone who is looking out for me. I have met so many people who were only interested in the money which they figure I will have. I know that Hoss is honest and all, I tried to sign the Lincoln over to him but he insisted that it would not be right. We were going to come down your way and see you but I told him that it would not be right unless you knew ahead of time and said that it would be o.k. I am hoping that everything will be settled within the next week or two so that I can leave here with Hoss. He is going to Tenn. and I told him that I would try to help him get a couple of his songs recorded as I know that would make him very happy and he has been so good to me. He keeps telling me no because it would cost too much but money isn't everything. After all his friendship means more than any money. If we are not able to do that perhaps after we travel for a short time he will find someplace that he likes and I will set him up in a lounge where he will be able to sing and perhaps make a new life for himself. Well Mr. Weisberg I must close for now but if you are not going to be too busy and we are able to make it up that way I certainly will be most happy to meet someone who means so much to Hoss. He has told me how often he sends you the tapes and how much you enjoy his singing. Looking forward to seeing you in the near future.

Sincerely,

Harothy Buckley
